(ii) Future Outlook*Equity Market Outlook

The Indian economy is estimated to grow by 7.4% in FY15 as per the revised methodology of calculation. This is one of the fastest growth rates globally. However, when one correlates this to the corporate growth rates in FY15, it presents a different picture. Sensex companies' earnings are expected to grow by only 6% in FY15. Earnings estimates for FY15 have been revised downwards by broking firms after each successive quarterly results. IIP growth still remains tepid and bank credit growth has plummeted. Within all this is a silver lining.

Consumer as well as wholesale inflation rates has fallen sharply to the lowest levels witnessed for a long time giving RBI room to ease rates. Further, fall in commodity prices, especially oil has brought current account deficit as well as subsidy to manageable levels. This has given more headroom for the Centre to act on growth enabling capital expenditure.

In terms of the global economy, whereas US Fed is inching closer to a tighter monetary policy, Eurozone is witnessing just the reverse as we see monetary stimulus leading the region to recovery. US is now grappling with the prospects of a very strong dollar even before the start of its upward rate cycle. Within Asia, Japan has been failing to lift its economy despite aggressive monetary easing for the last 3 years. China has begun to stare down at a slowdown in growth preceded by a weak housing market and is also looking at its own stimulus to counter disinflationary pressures. Within all this, Indian economy, despite its current form, stands out looking better.

The last year (FY15) has seen the Sensex return 25%, the midcap index 50% and the small cap index 54%. Mid and small cap valuations have caught up with large cap and in some cases, the valuation of mid caps have moved to a premium over large caps. Within sectors, healthcare sector has given the best returns of 70% followed by autos, capital goods and banks which gave between 40-50% returns. Metals and oil and gas gave negative returns. Among global markets, the best performing markets were Shanghai (84%) followed by Japan (30%), Germany (25%), whereas Dow Jones gave 8 % returns. Russia was the worst performer with -28% returns. India now trades at a premium to most emerging markets and in line with US markets. India's RoE remains superior to most emerging markets, an important differentiator for valuation premium.

India has been a big beneficiary of global liquidity with more than 18.4bn$ of inflows in FY15. FIs now own 21% of Indian equity and overweight position of emerging market investors in India is running high. However, with current account deficit reaching reasonably low levels and forex reserves strengthening, India's vulnerability to Fed tightening has come down.

Going forward, key events to watch for are the corporate earnings over the next few quarters. There have been green shoots such as some recovery in heavy commercial vehicles sales as well as Government initiatives in coal, telecom and fertiliser sectors. If the Government does take the right steps, ceteris paribus, the industry would get an added impetus to go back to better growth rates in the coming years.

Debt Market Outlook

Indian government bonds have had a good year in FY15, with yields moving down by almost 1% over the course of the year. 10 year gsec yields ended the year at 7.74% vs 8.80% a year back. While the first 3 months of the fiscal year saw fair bit of volatility, however - once the political landscape started becoming clearer and prospects of a stable NDA government increased, fixed income markets - along with equity and the currency- all embarked on a significant rally, with yields finally touching a bottom of 7.65% in early February. Inflation as indicated by CPI as well as WPI saw sharp broad-based falls, driven by the dramatic collapse in oil prices, as well as a drop in various other sub-categories of inflation on account of the tepid demand-side conditions in the economy. The RBI started its rate cutting cycle in January, cutting rates by a total of 50bps so far.

In its monetary policy review on April 7, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) left all key rates unchanged – as broadly expected by the market. The central bank said that going forward, the accommodative stance of monetary policy will be maintained, but monetary policy actions will be conditioned by incoming data. The RBI set out the following factors that will determine further action - transmission by banks, food inflation trends, further supply-side measures of the government, debottlenecking efforts by the government on stalled projects and direction of the US monetary policy.

The outlook for fixed income market continues to remain positive. Having cut rates already by 50bps so far this year, the RBI has now adopted a wait and watch approach, citing lack of transmission by banks as an important factor influencing the status quo decision. Also, risks around food inflation emanating from unseasonal rains, as well as possible El Nino impact going forward are key. However, overall – the RBI has expressed comfort with being able to undershoot their earlier 6% CPI target for March 2016, which has now been lowered to 5.8%.

The cautious and gradualist approach taken by the RBI has kept rate cut expectations fairly muted, and this in our view – is a huge positive, as it limits the scope for sharp upward movements in yields as and when growth picks up. The RBI clearly doesn't want to engage in a flip-flop policy of sharp rate cuts this year, only to reverse them next year. This provides the much needed stability that a long term fixed income investor desires, as it potentially reduces medium term volatility and enables investors to invest for longer time frames.

The government and RBI have formally adopted the flexible inflation targeting monetary policy framework, with a mandate to keep the CPI inflation below 6% by 2016, and then to 4% by early 2018. This is an extremely significant milestone for our fixed income markets, and is likely to influence policy making (of RBI and Government) to a very large extent over the coming years.

With 50bps of rate cuts out of the way, markets are on the lookout for some visibility on further rate cuts. With RBI being fairly non-committal on future course of action, data dependency has clearly increased, leading to a wide range of views on future course of action. Upcoming inflation data, trajectory for oil, and the global interest rates backdrop (especially US interest rates) are likely to be watched closely by the markets.

We continue to expect the central bank to lower interest rates further by 25bps (and in a very optimistic scenario by 50bps, though not our base case) over the course of the year, driven by a favorable global commodity price backdrop and a delayed start to US rate hikes. Accordingly, while there is scope for longer end yields to move lower, the extent of such gains does appear somewhat limited. Longer term investors would do well to focus on a combination of attractive portfolio yields, while still having moderate duration – as this combination should be able to deliver attractive returns over a 3 year plus horizon.
