[#] Mayank Chaturvedi shall be the fund manager for investments in foreign securities (wherever applicable) for all the schemes of HSBC Mutual Fund. w.e.f. October 01, 2025.

India is one of the fastest growing economies in the world. The role of infrastructure is paramount and foundation stone for any economy to drive forward. Thus, the government has reiterated its focus on infrastructure sector in Union Budget and proposed a robust infrastructure spending which is expected to positively influence the prospects of the companies in the core infrastructure and allied sectors.

HSBC Infrastructure Fund that endeavours to invest in companies that could gain from the government's policies on infrastructure growth and economic reforms that could directly feed off its growth.

Why HSBC Infrastructure Fund?

- To create wealth over a long-term from the infrastructure growth in India
- Aim to create a corpus through generating inflation-adjusted returns to cater to long-term goals

Fund Approach

- The fund is a thematic fund primarily investing in Infrastructure companies
- It's a flexi-cap strategy with a flexibility to invest across the market capitalization spectrum
- Fund mostly follows bottom-up approach for stock selection

Key portfolio themes

- We are invested into the cyclical part of the economy. We believe the earnings growth delivered by these companies is expected to be strong in the medium term
- Remain constructive on the businesses that are participating in the current growth trends
- Positive towards domestic cyclical, supported by the more robust medium term growth outlook
- Positioning in the portfolio :
 - Positive on Capital Goods, Real Estate, EPC, Cement and Logistics sectors
 - EPC companies are expected to benefit from increased traction in Roads, Building Construction, Water, Power transmission and distribution capex as well as Railway capex
 - Pickup in infra capex should drive the demand for some of the capital good companies
 - Improved demand in housing and infra segment along with expected improvement in pricing power due to increased utilisation level should be positive for Cement companies
 - Real Estate earnings momentum will be driven by demand factors and industry consolidation benefiting the larger listed players
 - With reform measures like GST and E-way Bills, Logistics sector should be beneficiary of increased supply chain outsourcing

Investment Objective

To generate long term capital appreciation from an actively managed portfolio of equity and equity related securities by investing predominantly in equity and equity related securities of companies engaged in or expected to benefit from growth and development of Infrastructure in India. However, there can be no assurance or guarantee that the investment objective of the scheme would be achieved.
