

Invest in HSBC Dynamic Bond Fund (HDBF)

Dynamic Bond Fund - An open ended dynamic debt scheme investing across duration. A relatively high interest rate risk and relatively low credit risk.

April 2024

Why HSBC Dynamic Bond Fund?

The fund aims to generate alpha using all sources of generating returns: Yield accruals through high quality credit selection and active duration management.

The fund follows active duration management along with dynamic asset allocation

The fund can be ideal for investors seeking appropriate risk adjusted returns over long run in a volatile interest rate environment.

In the current scenario where interest rates are nearing the peak in this cycle, there may be opportunities to capture alpha through strategic overweight duration in this fund.

Fund Approach

Actively managed fund investing across the yield curve in Govt. Securities and high-quality AAA rated credits aim to generate alpha over long term.

Dynamic duration management to seize potential upsides when interest rates are expected to soften while also reducing risks in an uncertain environment

Diversified portfolio spread across government securities, corporate bonds and money market instruments.

Aims to Invest in a liquid portfolio to enable positioning changes based on evolving scenario.
