

Thank him for helping you become who you are today.

Happy Father's Day

A father guides you and helps get you on the right path through life and in all you do. This Father's Day, let's remember his dedication, love and sacrifices that have helped shape our lives. Here's how you can thank your dad...

Help him plan for retirement

Illustrate the benefits of higher interest-bearing investments through Systematic Investment Plan (SIP) in mutual funds for better potential long-term returns

Ensure adequate medical coverage

Keep him covered with a plan that covers his healthcare costs today and tomorrow

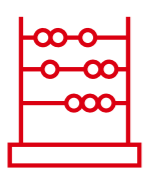

Plan for regular income post retirement

A Systematic Withdrawal Plan (SWP) can help your father get regular payouts for his daily needs

Set aside an emergency fund

Help your father prepare for any financial emergency with access to his funds

Help him create a will

Planning his estate will help distribute his wealth in future according to his desire and ensure a smooth transfer of assets

Review his investment portfolio

Take stock of his current and future financial needs and reallocate his portfolio if needed
