Why HSBC Conservative Hybrid Fund?

- The Scheme shall invest in debt and money market instruments and would seek to generate regular returns
- The scheme may also invest in equity and equity related instruments to seek capital appreciation
- A top down and bottom up approach will be used to invest in equity and equity related instruments
- Aims to create a corpus in long run through generating inflation-adjusted returns

Fund Approach

- From a medium term perspective, despite some volatility in bond yields over the coming few months both globally and in India, we continue to believe we are close to the peak of the rate hiking cycle.
- The risk–reward has turned in favor of careful deployment into certain areas which may offer risk adjusted returns in long term.
- We intend to take advantage of any opportunities that may arise on the longer end of the curve depending on market conditions.

Investment Objective

To seek generation of reasonable returns through investments in debt and money market Instruments. The secondary objective of the Scheme is to invest in equity and equity related instruments to seek capital appreciation. However, there can be no assurance or guarantee that the investment objective of the scheme would be achieved.

Exit Load: NIL, No entry load will be charged to the investor.
