Why Corporate Bond Fund?

- The strategy offers best of both worlds predictability of a close ended long-term FMP and the flexibility of an open-ended structure
- The fund offers an excellent replacement for tax free bonds, given the significant pickup in yield of HSBC Corporate Bond Fund (after adjusting for taxation) versus tax free bonds
- Minimal interest rate risk for investors staying in the fund for the entire tenor
- The fund's portfolio would carry a relatively low credit risk by virtue of its focus on investing predominantly in AAA rated credits
- To create a corpus through tax efficient inflation-adjusted returns

Fund Strategy

- HSBC Corporate Bond Fund follows a passive roll-down strategy targeting a maturity of July Sept 2028, with 100% of the portfolio invested in AAA Corporate bonds and Government Securities
- The fund endeavors to remain invested in bonds of only AAA rated companies
- The fund aims to generate significant proportion of the total returns in the form of income yield from accrual of high quality credit

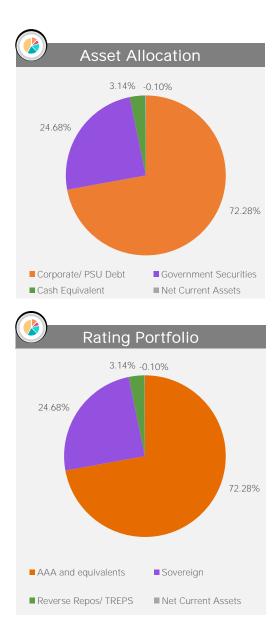

The fund had changes to its fundamental attributes as per the notice published on 15 Oct '22. For more details visit our website page https://www.assetmanagement.hsbc.co.in/en/mutual-funds/acquisition-of-lt-mutual-fund.
